St. Peter Saint:

Laurita Miller

Laurita Miller was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and lived many years at the Jersey Shore. She graduated from Millersville University near Lancaster, PA. Laurita thoroughly enjoyed her career as Human Resource Director at a New Jersey Hospital. Her greatest satisfaction came from the many programs they instituted to benefit the Hospital's employees. A few years ago, she and her husband of 27 years, Bill, retired and moved to Little Torch Key. They enjoy traveling and have visited Greece, the British Virgin Islands, and recently, Asia—Beijing, Manila and Singapore. Although they enjoy exploring other cultures and countries, they always enjoy returning to the wonders of the Florida Keys and the coral reefs.

Laurita has always enjoyed close family ties with her parents, her sister and three brothers. She travels to Philadelphia several times a year to spend time with her mother. The most important things in her life are her family and her faith. For the past 3 years she has been a very active member of St. Peter Parish. She is currently the Director of the RCIA program, serves as a Lector, and has begun her second year as a participant in the Archdiocesan Lay Ministry Program. Two years ago, she attended the annual St. Peter Emmaus Retreat.

When she's not volunteering at St. Peter's, Laurita loves to walk, cook and read. She loves mysteries, and her favorite author is P.D. James.

Fr. Tony received this letter from Fr. John L. Quinn who was here last week representing Cross International Catholic Outreach:

“Fr. Tony Mullane:

The faithful of St. Peter's once again blessed with justice and charity the “poorest of the poor” represented by Cross International Catholic Outreach.

The poor will benefit from the $4000 plus gifts this weekend with housing, food and medicines.

My sincere thanks to you and the pastoral staff that enabled this visit.

Meanwhile, “oremus pro invicem” (let us pray for each other)!

Fraternaly, Fr. John L.Quinn”
